THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. V. RALEIGH, SATURDAY, AUG. 27, 1864. NO. 147.

"We thank you, Mr. Davis. It is not often you have such a chance of saying what you think. In fact, you are the first man I ever heard say that he was glad to see a Yankee. You are the first man I ever heard say that he was glad to see a Yankee. You are the first man I ever heard say that he was glad to see a Yankee. You

RIVER NEWS.

GOVERNMENT STEAMER.

The Gallatin left Memphis on the 24th inst., at 10 A. M., for Vicksburg, with the following passengers:

Capt. Wm. Hall, Lieut. Commanding.
Lieut. Wm. Gibson, Executive Officer.
Lieut. Wm. Hall, Engineer.
Lieut. Wm. Hall, Jr., Engineer.
Lieut. Wm. Hall, Jr., Engineer.
Lieut. Wm. Hall, Jr.,